Who can be childcare uk?

Being childcare uk is an incredible opportunity that Global Exchange International offers Latin Americans and citizens of Miami (USA) SO THAT THEY CAN travel, live, work and study in the United Kingdom living a wonderful experience.

To be childcare uk is to belong to a host family as an adult, supporter and older brother or sister, to be childcare uk is to accompany the children of that family in their daily activities. Learn more!

Big benefits:

- Variety of destinations
- We provide programs for men and women between the ages of 17 and 25 in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- Experience for a lifetime
- The learning gained during the program does not end when you return, but is useful for life
- Learning a language
- The need to be able to communicate in another language allows you to develop skills successfully.

Generation of multinational links

Our applicants will attend institutions where they will meet students from other countries and different cultures, this networking can be used in the future.

Living with a different family, attending an educational institution abroad and making friends from all over the planet is the best way to get a global vision of the current situation in political, economic and social issues.

Better global market immersion

Companies are increasingly demanding, requesting human talent with several languages and also taking into account international experiences lived by their workers.
